TAVOLO | TABLE

by Fabio Crippa & Joe Gentile

Le gambe a sezione variabile, sapientemente tornite, sono l'elemento caratterizzante del tavolo. Posizionate obliquamente agli angoli dello stesso, rompono la rigida simmetria rettangolare e creano un continuum con il piano che, contenuto nella fascia perimetrale, scompare alla vista. Sulla sommità delle gambe sono incastonati degli elementi in pietra semipreziosa (Occhio di Tigre), che, attraverso i bellissimi riflessi di luce ondeggianti, impartiscono alla pietra un effetto detto "fiammeggiante".

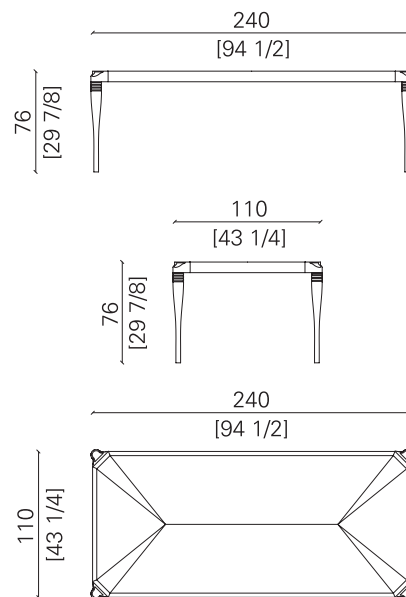

The tapered legs, expertly turned, are the characterizing element of this table. Positioned at its corners, the beveled leg posts interrupt the rigid rectangular symmetry and create a continuum with the tabletop, which, contained by the perimeter strip, vanishes from sight. The tops of the posts are inlaid with semiprecious stone elements (Tiger's Eye), which show beautiful glimmers of undulating light, creating the so-called "flaming effect."
