TAVOLINO BASSO | COFFEE TABLE

by Fabio Crippa & Joe Gentile

L'immagine evocativa da cui nasce questo prodotto è quella di ninfee galleggianti sullo specchio d'acqua. Il piano in ottone lavorato a cerchi concentrici evoca movimenti acquatici e dona alla superficie riflessi dorati. La lavorazione a rilievo rimanda a pennellate dense tipiche dell'Impressionismo. L'incastonatura della pietra semipreziosa Labradorite rende il manufatto più affascinante e crea, attraverso l'iridescenza della stessa, effetti cromatici che rimandano alle più famose ninfee di Monet. I piani in cristallo fumé invitano a "guardare" al di là della superficie alla ricerca di tesori sommersi.

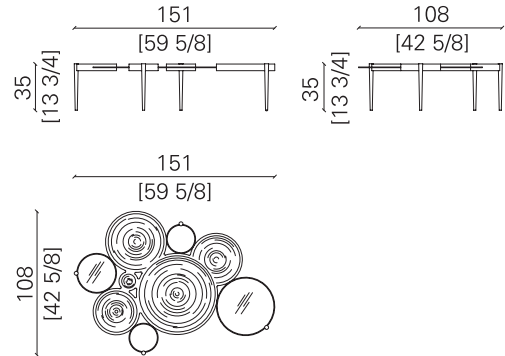

The evocative image that gave rise to this coffee table is that of lilies floating on the surface of the water. The brass concentric circles of the tabletop recall the ripples of a stone dropped in the water and imbue the surface with glimmering gold reflections. The surface relief suggests thick Impressionist brushstrokes. The Labradorite inlays heighten the fascination of the object and, through their iridescence, generate chromatic effects that call to mind Monet's celebrated water lilies. The smoked glass invites the gaze beyond the surface, in search of sunken treasures.
